By the time you read this, Christmas will be over for another year and spring is not that far away, which means another growing season is on the horizon.

I hope 2022 is a successful growing year for you and the results of your labours can be seen in our Summer Show in July.

I am proud that in 2021 we managed to have speaker meetings from April to December despite the problems caused by Covid.

My personal highlight of 2021 is always the Celebrity Speaker Meeting in October. This year the celebrity was Tom Hart-Dyke, Tom talked with boundless energy about his various plant hunting trips around the world which included a return to South America, where Tom was kidnapped in 2000 in Colombia and held captive for nine months.

I was also pleased and proud that we managed to have a Summer Show in July. We were pleased with the number of visitors who attended.

The committee and I have once again worked hard to make sure that the Society kept going in 2021.

I would like to introduce our new Secretary Pauline Eagar and Treasurer Richard Studd who have both been elected into their posts for the next three years.

Also elected to the committee is Pam Bullman who serves the refreshments at the speaker meetings and also co-ordinates the purchasing and distribution of Kings Seeds to members.

You can be reassured that myself and the committee will once again work hard to keep the society open and do everything in our power to overcome whatever 2022 throws at us.

Philip Walters
Chair, Galleywood Horticultural Society

We want to be able to communicate with all our members at short notice so that we can keep you informed of any changes to our programme, as well as keeping everybody up to date regarding our programme of events.

This can best be done by email. If you have an email address could you send it to galleywoodhorticulturalsociety@gmail.com please. The committee do not disclose the information we hold on a member to anyone without their permission. We have phone numbers for a majority of members but some are inaccurate.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

To manage membership records; to distribute membership cards, yearly schedules and electronic information about the Society and events we may arrange independently or with third parties; to promote horticultural activities; to support our committee members and any other volunteer helper; to maintain our accounts and records; to inform you of news, events and activities that might be relevant to you as a member of a horticultural society.

Section 1. Flowers.

Use flowers that are fresh and free from damage by pests or disease.
No oasis to be used in any display/arrangement.

Section 2. Pot Plants

The judge will be looking for well balanced, healthy plants. Clean pots before staging and remove any debris from the top of the compost.
Plants may only be entered for one year.

Section 3. Flower Arrangements

Use flowers and foliage that are fresh but these need not have been grown by the exhibitor. Make sure the size specified for each class is met. No oasis to be used in any display/arrangement.

Section 4. Vegetables and Fruit

Exhibits should be fresh, tender and clean. They should be free from damage by pests or disease. Quality and uniformity are more important than size.

All fruits should have stalks left on and currants should be left on their trusses. Do not polish exhibits, especially fruit.

Section 5. Cookery and Preserves

Colour, consistency and flavour are paramount. No pre-packed products should be used in the preparation of exhibits. Jars should be no bigger than 454g (1lb) and should be correctly sealed and labelled. Do not re-use commercial jars that still have original labels.
